

Interior view of the field laboratory built in a hut and run by Franz Ernest Studt, geologist-metallurgist working for the T.C.L. (Tanganyika Concessions Ltd.) (ca. 1901-1903).

The first ores from Kambove and Ruwe were analyzed for copper and Precious Metals (Au, Ag, Pt, Pd).

*Reproduced from: "Union Minière du Haut Katanga. 1906-1956",
Ed. L. Cuypers-Brussels, p. 49. Courtesy UMICORE*