The conference continues the long-standing tradition of the Association of Young Legal Historians of providing a general meeting spot for young scholars working on the history of law. It seeks to transcend communal boundaries to further research and to stimulate the exchange of ideas. Ever since her foundation twenty-five years ago the Association has been able to attract a loyal and returning group of young scholars from many countries across Europe and the wider world. In 2019, it is our honour to welcome you to Brussels.

The opening of the congress will be hosted at the Palace of the Academies (Rue Ducale 1, 1000 Brussels), 5 June 2019, in the presence of the rector of the VUB, Caroline Pauwels. Keynote speeches will be presented by Prof. Dr. Thomas Duve (Director of the Max Planck Institut für europäische Rechtsgeschichte, Frankfurt am Main), Prof. Dr. Lauren Benton (Vanderbilt University, President-elect of the American Society for Legal History) and by Simona Cerutti (Studies Director at the Centre of Historical Studies (CRH) of the École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales (EHESS), Paris).
